

Kate Constantini is an Ohio native currently based in Los Angeles pursuing a commercial dance career. Kate trained at the Joffrey Ballet School in New York City before continuing her education at Chapman University, where she earned her BFA in Dance Performance. Throughout her career, Kate has had the opportunity to work alongside numerous industry professionals, including Jamal Sims, Tessandra Chavez, Kayla Kalbfleisch, Kiira Harper, Dwight Rhoden, Kai Martinez, Will Johnston, Will Bell, Angelica Stiskin, and more. Some of her experience includes skeleton crew work for Dancing With The Stars and ADÉLA's "Red Bottoms" music video, assistant choreographer for Marie Alexander's "Already Broken" music video, as well as live performances at Orsolina28, Club Jeté and Carnival. Kate is represented by Go 2 Talent Agency. As an educator, Kate is passionate about encouraging young dancers to embrace their individuality, develop their own unique style, and experiment with new dynamics and movement qualities.
